DECEMBER '99: President Tom Dwyer called the meeting to order at 6:33PM. There were 32 members and 1 guest present. The minutes of the Nov. meeting were approved as published in the Prop Wash.

Treasurer Don Ramsey reported the current treasury balance and stated that in view of past years' experience with routine cash flow, any sizeable expenditures probably should not be contemplated until after next year's dues have been collected.

Guest Ron Reed Was introduced.

There was not any old business to discuss.

The membership application of JAMES LOVELACE and son ROSS was voted on and approved. Welcome to the club and lots of safe flying!

Bob Schlotter has agreed to build two or three new tables for the shed area. He said he may need help in transporting the material as he does not have a way to transport the big pieces. Don Ramsey announced that he had donated a pit-crew type plane holder to the club for anyone to use, especially if they are flying alone. The device is now in the pit area.

Jeff Tucker and John Schuren volunteered to be the 2 member audit team required by the constitution to review the Treasurer's records as outlined in the club Constitution and by-laws. Results will be reported at the February meeting.

Out going President Tom Dwyer described the official duties of each club office and thanked his fellow officers for the fine work they had done, (he demanded fine work. Ed.) he then installed the newly elected officers, who promised to abide by the Club's Constitution and By-laws, as specified in those documents.
