

FROM THE SECRETARY

MINUTES OF BARNSTORMERS MEETING 6-2-2005

Meeting was called to order at 7:30 pm.

All officers present except Bob Johnson.

Mikael Wallsten from Hobby Town USA made a presentation. This is a new hobby shop located in the Portofino Shopping Center in Shenandoah. Hours are 10-8 Mon-Sat and 12-6 Sunday. Special orders are available with no shipping charge.

Harper reported that finances are in good shape.

Two new members. They are Perry Cox and Eric DeSardi Jr.

Adam developed a proposal for planes that do not fly a standard pattern. Planes would fly from stations at either the north or south end of the field. The proposal is to be presented in the newsletter. The proposal was accepted and will be posted at the field.

Al Dalnoki reported on the glider contest to be held August 20.

Scott Mrosko reported on the electric fly.

A fun fly is scheduled for July.

Gary Baumgartner reported on the kitchen project. Project is complete. Budget was $4200. Total expenditures were $3736.59.

– Gary Baumgartner